Round 1 winners of glasses and a drink to be presented on Thursday night are Bill Furneaux, Lee Tiepermann, Byron Coonerty and Kevin Oram with a 41 to 6 win.

A credible second went to Fluffy's rink of Alan Burness, Ash Harvey, Cain Handley and Sean Ingram.

Disaster of the round (name with held) goes to the skip who on one end converted a 2 up to 4 down for opposing skip make it 5 down and the very next end turned a one down to 4 down with the last bowl of the end. Good news is the rink still won on the day as did the side.

Sandbelt triples results - 2 sides make it to the quarter finals

On a brilliant Sunday morning four sides from MBC headed to Caulfield Park Alma (CPA) to compete in the Sandbelt Triples tournament for the 2018/19 year.

On the extremely fast small CPA rink Ray McKay and his team of Milan Prosenica and Matty Green fought an incredibly hard tussle against Middle Park. It came down to the last end with Ray needing to convert a three from a very tough head and only narrowly missing to go down in a tight battle. With the scores being only 12-10 and no end scoring higher than a 2 it shows what a tight 18 end tussle it was.

Paul Titcombe, Arjay and Shuggy made easier going of their first round opponents and move easily into the second round with a 17 10 win. While Dave Mann, Al Burness and Mr R ing-in had a tighter tussle of their match but came home strong enough to register a 14 -11 win.

The afternoon saw the sun blazing (well it felt that way given the long winter) and on the rinks it was just as hot.

Bad luck in the draw saw the Titcombe team up against the Mann team while Ash's team was taking on a very strong Moorabbin contingent. The home derby was a close fought tussle all the way with plenty of good banter but deadly serious underneath. Great respect to Titters who was playing his brilliant lead as he always does despite playing on one leg for the day!! In the end it was Titters and crew who pushed hard over the last ends to register a 15-10 win and a place in the quarter finals.

Two rinks over Ash, Byron and Simon started out being 4-5 after four ends before the opposition had three great ends (some good fortune) to push out to a 12-5 lead after seven ends. From there it was a dour battle as the MBC boys clawed back to go into the 18th and final end with a one shot lead. Good bowls made it hard for the opposition and in the end it was a 19-17 win for MBC.

So with 24 pairs starting we are down to the quarter finals and MBC still has two teams representing us..Go Dees!!

A fundraiser to assist Grant Hopwood and his family

A few words of gratitude from Grant.

It's not very often I'm lost for words but what has taken place over the last 3-4 weeks at the MBC is far more than an inspiration in such a short period of time the Greatest Club in the Country has come together to help my family at a real time of need. My wife Jasmine and I are as I said absolutely lost for words. Overwhelmed with the love and friendship of not only the MBC but the bowls community. Thank you so much to everyone involved Sqirta Cutter Stoney and the 110+ that gave up their night to support my family.

Love from the Hopwood's to all
